

Benin

Entry Restrictions

- There are no COVID-19 related entry restrictions at this time. However, travellers should hold the relevant travel documents to enter the country

Entry & Health Requirements

- There are no COVID-19 related Entry and Health restrictions at this time. However, travellers should hold the relevant travel documents to enter the country

In-country Experience

- All COVID-19 measures applied in public spaces have been lifted. Private institutions however were permitted to continue with their choice of measures including mask mandates.

Transit Restrictions

- There are no COVID-19 related transit restrictions at this time. However, travellers should hold the relevant travel documents for their transit and final destinations

Togo

Entry Restrictions

- There are no COVID-19 related entry restrictions at this time. However, travellers should hold the relevant travel documents to enter the country

Entry & Health Requirements

- All travellers must complete an Online Traveller Declaration form 24 hours prior to arrival. The form can be uploaded here.

In-country Experience

- Face masks are mandatory in public spaces
- Most offices and stores are open with social distancing measures in place.
- Public transport is operating at reduced capacity.

Transit Restrictions

- All travellers must complete an Online Traveller Declaration form 24 hours prior to arrival. The form can be uploaded here.

Ghana

Entry restrictions

- There are no COVID-19 related Entry Restrictions at this time. However, travellers should hold the relevant travel documents to enter the country.

Entry & Health Requirements

- There are no COVID-19 related entry & health requirements at this time. However, travellers should hold the relevant travel documents to enter the country..

In-country Experience

- A valid vaccination certificate may still be required for in-person activities,
- The public transport system is operating on a regular service throughout the territory.
- Curfews have been implemented in various regions of the country.

Transit Restrictions

- There are no COVID-19 related transit restrictions at this time. However, travellers should hold the relevant travel documents for their transit and final destinations

